

On Jun 3, 2016, at 11:18 AM, Toni @gmail.com> wrote:

JASON,Bring on the tears!!!!

Listen, you guys have done and are doing something so special. I think I can speak for all of us when I say, you can feel the magic of your efforts when even standing near that car.

You elicit instant joy and a magnetic energy from people. Old ,young and animals alike.

Even when Vinny and I road through Central Park bracing ourselves for some venom, it never came. Our ride was 200% joy and love. Cab drivers, bus drivers kids, wild women , the elderly and small pets all flock to your hard work.

And better yet, not only do they want a picture, they want to talk. They want to engage. In this day and age, as we continue to draw dangerous lines in the sand between us and our humanity, you have created a product that is effortlessly bringing people together to engage with one another.

They already love it so much that by the time they learn it is for the love of the planet and animals they are completely sold.

Please accept my cyber hug and hard slap on the back for your incredible efforts. I was luckily to be able to experience the #ecarriage thanks to my beautiful and intelligent friend Claudine DeSola, sweet Cousin Vinny, Stacy Igel , Valerie Star and the good people of Boy Meets Girl. It was hand down one of the most memorable NY rides of my life.

Thank you!

Keep it UP!!!!

Sincerely,

Toni ~~T~~

- beep